

6. Home is a special kind of feeling

David Grant

JOHN RUTTER

Gently, but moving along (♩ = 96)

PIANO

p (con Ad.)

5 ALL VOICES unis.
p dolce, legato

Home is a spe - cial kind of feel - ing; The 9

S. A. feel - ing of a place where you be - long; A

T. B.

This song is the finale from The Wind in the Willows, an Entertainment originally written for the King's Singers and the City of London Sinfonia. Orchestral material (flute, oboe, harp, percussion, strings) is available for hire from the publisher. Also available separately, x430 (excl. USA).

© Oxford University Press 1989.

13 poco cresc. mp
feel - ing that the world is left be - hind you, _____ unis. poco cresc. mp Like a 17

shel - ter from your care _____ That seems to want you to be there. _____

21 Home is that spe - cial kind of feel - ing: _____ The

mp
p mm
p

25 feel - ing that you've made it all your own;

(mm)

29 mp Some - where which you know is real - ly your place; mf place, mp A place for

mp mf mp

mm

33 liv - ing; p

(mm) Your spe - cial place, your home.

p

37 mf warmly
Home has a wel-come kind of
mf warmly
mf warmly

41
feel - ing: The fire - light and the warmth of hearth and mf warmly

45
home; A wel-come that you know will al - ways
mp
mm
mf
mp
mm
mp

49 Like a gen - tle — fond 'hel - lo' — that seems to cheer you, —

mp mm mp

53 touch you with a glow. —

Home has a qui - et kind of mm mf mf

57 feel - ing: — An is - land when you need to be a -

61

- lone; A ha - ven for the times you spend to -

mp

65

- geth - - er; There's no - where bet - ter, p

- geth - - er; mm No

mf mp p

68

o - ther place like home.

rit. a tempo rit. al fine

rit. a tempo rit. al fine